

LEGEND

population (includes additional communities in the greater city area) areas of very high population under a million 1-5 million 5-15 million over 15 million	volcanoes physical features actively disputed border
cultural regions Scotland kurds prominent indigenous nations & groups of people marshland savanna cropland mountains	political boundaries dependencies and areas of special sovereignty independent states destroyed rainforest severe water pollution ice pack limits severe radioactive contamination continental shelf shallow water desert* tundra permanent ice covering ice shelf coniferous antarctic desert ice shelf

The Exploration Company

WIDE RANGING WORLD MAP

environment - ecology - population density - political - indigenous nations

equatorial scale 1:34,420,000
 at the equator, 1 inch = 542 miles ; 1 centimeter = 345 kilometers multiple projections for land-form optimization

Wide Ranging World Map, Compact Edition, 2002
 Printed in U.S.A.
 The Exploration Company © 2002
 4263 W. Ailes Dr. Phoenix, AZ 85033
 sales@theexplorationcompany.com
 fax: 602-547-8441 tel: 602-547-8442
 www.theexplorationcompany.com